

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES

Fall 2018

WEDNESDAYS 1-2pm
WELLS HALL B135

September 12	Listening to/learning from others: Podcasting and Collaboration (Rocío Quispe-Agnoli)
September 18 (Tuesday, 2pm)	Increasing instructional effectiveness in basic Italian courses with blended learning technology (Carmen De Lorenzo)
September 19	Reimagining online learning: Creating French and German courses for Michigan Virtual (Carly Lesoski & Erica DeSousa)
September 26	Gamifying the Language Curriculum: From Theory to Practice (Felix Kronenberg)
October 1 (Monday, 2pm)	Exploring language identities in a multilingual world (Peter De Costa & Koen Van Gorp)
October 3	Using the Digital Scholarship Lab (Kristen Mapes)
October 10	Meet the CeLTA Fellows
October 12 (Friday, 1pm)	Understanding form-focused classroom communication (Paul Toth, CeLTA Signature Speaker)
October 17	Making Open Educational Resources (Koen Van Gorp, Emily Heidrich & Luca Giupponi)
October 24	Putting language to work: Building professional competency through study abroad (Jennifer Gansler)
October 31	Instructors' perceptions of proficiency-, task- and project-based teaching (Emily Heidrich & Koen Van Gorp)
November 7	Become a Super Learner - B125 (Lina Wu, Kyle Silva & Stephen Blosser)
November 28	Discover great media for your language course with the Kaltura & Kanopy apps (Daniel Trego)
December 5	Incorporating the new ACTFL intercultural standards in your classes (Paula Winke, Lynn Wolff & Valentina Denzel)

Pizza and soft drinks will be served at all Wednesday events.
For more information about each event, please visit:
facebook.com/CELTAMSU/events

@CeLTAMSU
celta.msu.edu