Second Language Studies Symposium

Friday, February 26, 2016
B210 Wells Halls (presentation space)

9:30-10:00am  Welcome and Coffee
10:00-11am     Keynote speaker

Second language learners’ acquisition of English verb-argument constructions: Insights from corpora and psycholinguistic experiments
Ute Römer, Georgia State University

11:00-11:15am  Break
11:15-11:45am  Hyung-Jo Yoon: Automated assessment of authorial voice in written discourse
11:45-12:15    Megan Smith: Word-by-word: L2 Japanese speakers' ability to use case particles to process Japanese

12:15-1:15pm   Lunch Break
1:15-1:45pm    Irina Zaykovskaya: Accidentally in love: A tale of an American learner's investment into learning Russian:
1:45-2:15pm    Dustin Crowther: The blurred line between language learner and language user: Navigating the journey from the language to the undergraduate classrooms

2:15-2:30      Break
2:30-3:30      Keynote speaker

Identity, investment, and language learning in changing times
Bonny Norton, University of British Columbia