

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES SPRING 2018

WEDNESDAYS 1-2pm
WELLS HALL B135

January 24	Placement testing software available at MSU Wells B125 (Paula Winke and Emily Heidrich)
January 31	Qualtrics survey software overview: Applications for research Wells B125 (Jeff Maloney and Dan Isbell)
February 7	Create media-rich speaking assignments using H5P Wells B125 (Shannon Spasova)
February 14	Developing your academic online presence (Kristen Mapes) Digital Scholarship Lab, MSU Library
February 21	Graphic narratives and digital mapping in the world language and culture classroom (Lynn Wolff and Matt Handelman)
February 28	Correcting errors and giving feedback in the world language classroom (Sheng Zhang)
March 14	Teaching to who and where students are: Making courses accessible (Maddie Shellgren)
March 15	Liaisons in French: What are students really learning in class? Thursday, 3-4pm (Anne Violin-Wigent, CeLTA Fellow)
March 21	Promoting foreign language study in middle schools (Alissa Cohen, CeLTA Fellow)
April 4	CeLTA grant updates: Language Proficiency Flagship and LCTL Partnership (Gass, Winke, Van Gorp, and Heidrich)
April 11	Measuring ESL learners' language profiles: An individual differences approach (Aline Godfroid, CeLTA Fellow)
April 18	Authentic reading texts from elementary to advanced (Zarema Kumakhova and Shannon Spasova, CeLTA Fellows)
April 25	Online ESL tutoring materials (Dmitrii Pastushenkov, CeLTA Fellow)

Pizza and soft drinks will be served at all Wednesday events.
For more information about each event, please visit:
facebook.com/CELTAMSU/events

